Something is happening at KWMR, something so refreshing I just can't keep it to myself. Young people are walking through the front door and getting involved. Mia Johnson, the youngest member of the KWMR staff joined us two years ago and is now our Underwriting Coordinator. Mia has many talents, including as an artist, and she did the illustrations for this report.

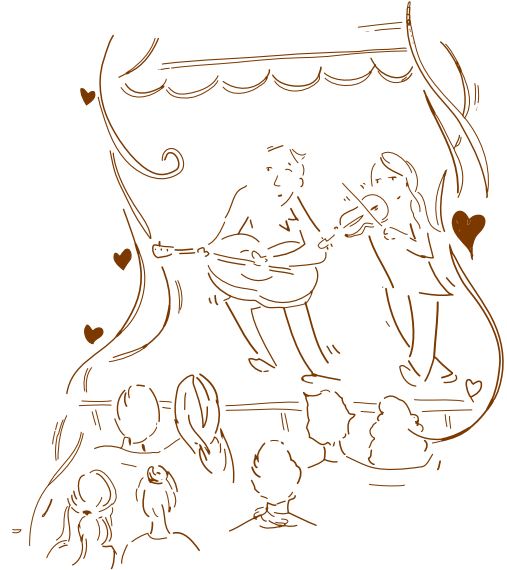

Anna Kositzin is hooked. For a school report, the 8th grader is hosting a music-and-interview program within the Youth D.J. Project (Mondays, 4-5 pm). 12 year-old Brett Buteaux has been co-hosting with Madeline Hope on Trash To Treasure. Anna went through the on-air training in order to host and engineer her own show; Brett and two San Geronimo Valley students will do the same very soon.

Katie Eberle, Sophia Setrakian, and Camila Hernandez-Flowerman are working with us to strengthen youth programming on KWMR.

This involvement of our young people is crucial and it is happening! KWMR has received grants from the West Marin Fund, Public Insight Network and the Stinson Beach/Bolinas Library Improvement Society to help with this initiative.

This is just a start—and you can help! Make your contribution now to KWMR. Join the Calendar Club! Thank you for your support!

year round!

KWMM.ORG

These days, even the greatest distances have been vanquished by the marvels of modern communications technologies. The internet, cable and satellite TV, our cell phones and mobile devices provide instant contact with every corner of the globe, every latest happening, every casual acquaintance and celebrity-of-the-moment. That which is far-flung, we are connected to, and we pay a monthly fee for this without a thought. But what connects us to here, to that which is local and close, to this place called West Marin we love so much?

One answer to that question is KWMM, your friendly, local, FCC-licensed community radio station. Our high quality locally produced programming and emergency news reports keep you current when you are here, and our 24/7 on-line audio stream keeps you in contact when you are away. If it's worth knowing the pulse of Berlin and Bangkok, the same is true for Bolinas and Bivalve. Events hereabouts may not always be so big, but they are much closer to the places and people we care most about.

That's why we hope you'll sign up for KWMM's Calendar Club, which automatically bills your credit or debit card each month for any amount greater than $10 that you choose. At $25/month, it would probably be one of the smaller monthly fees on your credit card statement. For that modest sum, you'll get the satisfaction of helping KWMM to stay on the air and continue to provide the great programming we love and the emergency information that we have come to rely on.

Community radio is alive and well in West Marin, and by joining our Calendar Club, you'll help us keep it that way!

David Bunnett
KWMM Board President
